

Grade 6 May Newsletter

GREEN SCHOOL Edition

Green school was amazing to say the least. The students were excited, ambitious and learnt to take risks. They were able to learn more crafts and learn more about themselves. The long coach rides and hiking through the forests learning more about nature and different organisms also meant more time for bonding as a class. They enjoyed trips to different the different museums, playing volleyball, bonfires, disco nights and walks by the Baltic sea.

